

ERASMUS+ BIP on

Good Practices in Doctoral Supervision

ENROL
NOW
Until 11.12.2023

INFO AND REGISTRATION: www.urv.cat/bip2024phd

This blended intensive programme is addressed to academic, administrative and technical staff involved in doctoral supervision and PhD training with the objective of bringing awareness to one's own conception of the supervisory role. Each module starts with a short presentation of the main concepts, followed by interactive exercises working in groups and round tables under supervision.

The programme consists of online sessions followed by one week of in-person training at the URV:

20 and 29 February

Synchronous online sessions

11-15 March, in-person

Universitat Rovira i Virgili, Tarragona, Spain

Tarragona, with its Mediterranean climate, stunning beaches and rich cultural heritage, provides a conducive environment for study and daily life. The city boasts historic Roman landmarks, and its proximity to Barcelona and Reus enhances cultural opportunities. The region's natural beauty, from coastal views to nearby mountains, offers numerous outdoor activities. Coupled with its international student community, Tarragona's diverse gastronomy, featuring Mediterranean cuisine, completes this enriching experience for visitors.
